Crown Chimney is excited to announce that our new business hours are Monday through Friday; 8:30AM – 4:30PM. The decision to alter our hours of operation was made with great care and mindfulness of our core values: integrity, empowerment, customer care, sustainability and our impact to the industry and the community we serve. We are excited and believe this change will better support our business model, our team, and our valued patrons. For those customers with existing appointments, please note that your currently scheduled service will take place approximately 30 minutes earlier than initially anticipated. As always, a team member will reach out with a friendly reminder a week or two before your appointment, and the lead technician will call when he dispatches and travels to your home. We sincerely apologize for any

Meet our team members!!

Eric would be in a digital world if he hadn't found his days surrounded by chimneys. Like the technology industry, the chimney industry is a dynamic and rapidly evolving field. Instead of a modem, he has masonry; instead of a CPU, he has a cap; instead of a laptop, he has a liner; instead of software, he has

When it comes to chimneys, Erik is as serious as it gets and wears his certification badge with pride. Erik encourages our customers to "wonder a little more and indulge curiosity," advising folks to utilize our talented technicians to learn about the value of annual maintenance and safe burn

The best advice Ryan could give people about chimney care is to: "Call Crown" and we agree! If Ryan was not so skilled as a chimney technician, he would be a skydiving instructor! It's a great thing that Ryan is not acrophobic so he can enjoy the rooftop views and soar to new heights working in tandem with his staging ... Eric urges customers to "take maintenance of your chimney and appliances seriously so they run efficiently and safely" (a "firewall" of sorts). When it comes to networking, Eric is at the top of his game and we are glad to have him as a collaborative "content" creator.

habits. When it comes to having fun, Erik is as silly as it gets and embraces his Hype Man persona to the fullest. Erik takes a very upbeat approach in life to spread positivity, boost morale, and keep everyone laughing. Professional sweep or peep, we are hyped to have Erik on our team!

crewmates. While accelerated free-falling is more his speed, when on the job, Ryan is safely harnessed and stable. We are thrilled this thrill-seeker jumped into our office, and while he may not be holding a parachute, he is holding the necessary tools for his success in the chimney industry.

Be Safe this Burn Season

Heating, holiday decorations, winter storms and candles all contribute to an increased risk of fire during the winter months. Click the link below to learn what our friends at the National Fire Protection Association advise ...
